H. D. C. MacLachlan Minister of The Christian Church at Shelbyville, Kentucky,

Addresses an Open Letter to the Temperance People of Kentucky.

It is as follows.

(Advertisement.)

Shelbyville, Ky., Nov. 1, 1906.
An Open Letter to the Friends of Temperance in Kentucky.

I had hoped that some other persons, whose words might conceivably carry more weight, could have been induced to perform this somewhat invidious task, but as no one has come forward to do so, I feel it my plain duty, as one who has the cause of temperance at heart, to make public the following facts: I do so because the temperance issue has been injected into the Senatorial and Governor's campaigns, and Gov Beckham and Judge Hager are appealing to the temperance voter's support them as their champion. Some time ago there were rumors of a certain check, which, if genuine, calculated, I thought, to throw light on Gov. Beckham and Mr Hager's sincerity on the temperance issue. I did not desire to act upon mere hearsay, and I did not wish to do Gov Beckham or Mr Hager an injustice. I therefore wrote Mr Hager a letter as follows:

"Shelbyville, Ky., Oct. 15, 1906-Hon S W Hager, Frankfort, Ky.—Dear Sir: I am deeply interested as a citizen and a friend of the temperance cause in the issue of the approaching primary, and as you are a candidate for the Governorship of the State and Gov J C W Beckham a candidate for the United States Senate, I feel it my duty to write to you concerning the following matters: It has been brought to my certain knowledge that in 1903, when you were chairman of Gov Beckham's campaign committee, a check was given you by Chas P Dehler on the German Insurance Bank of Louisville, and that you as chairman got the money thereon, which C P Dehler was then, and is now, secretary of the Brewers' Combine in Louisville, and also secretary of the Central Consumers' Company, the organization which manages the allied beer and whisky interests in the State. These are matters of my certain knowledge. It is alleged, however, further that this check was given you upon a distinct pledge given first by you, then confirmed by Gov Beckham himself, at the Tenth street depot in Louisville, that in consideration thereof and certain other payments made by the liquor people, their interests would be safeguarded during Gov Beckham's term of office, and in particular that the county unit bill should not be allowed to pass. I am also informed that the same Chas P Dehler was appointed by Gov Beckham as a colonel on his staff, and he is now serving as such, and later on received an additional appointment as a commissioner of the Lakeland Asylum. Now, I desire you, Mr Hager, to state to me, in response thereto, if the check above referred to was given you under the pledge herein stated, and whether the above facts are true, and if in any wise false, wherein are they false, as I do not desire to do you or Gov Beckham an injustice in condemning you unheard. I shall be glad to hear from you within the next few days, at the close of which time I shall feel free to publish this letter, with whatever comments thereon I may see fit to make. Very truly yours. H. D. C. MACLACHLAN."

Miss Mahan's Letter.

I received no answer from Judge Hager, but on the 17th of October received the following letter, signed "Sara W Mahan," his secretary:

"Office of S W Hager, Candidate for Governor, Frankfort, Ky., Oct. 17 1906: Rev H D C MacLachlan, Shelbyville, Ky., I am in receipt of your letter of the 15th inst, addressed to Judge Hager, requesting that he advise you within three days concerning the assurances which are purported to have been given by Judge Hager and Gov Beckham to Mr Chas P Dehler in exchange for contribution to the Democratic Campaign Committee in 1903, of which Judge Hager was Chairman. Judge is absent from the city and will not return for several days. I have talked to him over the telephone in regard to your letter, and he bids me to say to you that he will not be home in time to answer your letter within the time mentioned therein, but to assure you that he never accepted any check upon his pledge to any one, nor did he see Mr Dehler or anyone else at the Tenth street depot in Louisville and made a pledge of this or any other character. Upon his return here within the week he will answer your letter. SARAH W. MAHAN, Secretary."

The failure to answer my letter by Judge Hager himself touching a matter of such importance, and the evasive letter of his secretary, makes it my duty as a Christian and a friend of the cause of temperance to now publish the facts within my knowledge. I personally saw the check referred to; it is dated Louisville, Ky., October 28, 1903; given on the German Insurance Bank of Louisville, Ky., for $3,500, made payable to S W Hager, chairman and signed Chas P Dehler; it was duly endorsed by chairman, and paid through the Union National Bank of Louisville. Now Mr Chas P Dehler is secretary of the Brewers' Combine in Louisville and also of the Central Consumers' Company, which is the political organization which has charge of the allied beer and whisky interests in the State. It is alleged by Chas P Dehler that this check was given to Mr Hager on a distinct pledge given by Gov Beckham himself on the morning of the 28th of October, 1903, at the Tenth street depot in Louisville, and that in consideration thereof the liquor interest would be safeguarded during his (Gov Beckham's) term of office, and in particular that the county unit bill would not be allowed to pass.

Unit Bill Held Up.

It is a matter of common knowledge that this pledge was kept and the unit bill held up until last Senatorial campaign. I also upon examination found it to be true that Chas P Dehler gave the check which was cashed by Mr Hager at the Union National Bank necessarily to be used for campaign purposes for the benefit of Gov Beckham, who was then a candidate for Governor, and Mr Hager, who was a candidate for Auditor in 1903; that said Dehler was appointed by Gov Beckham on his staff and is now serving, as such, and he was afterward appointed by him as a commissioner of the Lakeland Asylum. This $3,500 whisky money was received by these, now alleged friends of temperance; they, the whisky people, do not give up their money without they receive proper pledges.

Now, I am one of those who believe that there should be honor among thieves and that a pledge given to the whisky interests is as binding upon a man of honor as one given to a more righteous cause. I am further of opinion that one who will break faith with the liquor dealers will break it also with the Anti Saloon League whenever it is his interest to do so. What the temperance people want is not trumped-up advocates of their cause, but honest men in power. Shall the temperance vote of this State be cast for men who are not only proved corrupt, but faithlessly corrupt? It is said that the election of Gov Beckham and Mr Hager will mean a victory for temperance, because it will teach politicians, of this State hereafter to respect the temperance vote.

With all due deference, it will do nothing of the sort. The politicians know very well the true weakness of the campaign, and Gov Beckham and Mr Hager, selection will only teach them the temperance voters of Kentucky may be made catspaws and playthings of for the private ends of any designing politicians who care to degrade a high and moral issue to the level of ward-heeling.

Two Voting Places.

(Advertisement.)

The vote for Congressman will be taken next Tuesday, at your regular voting place, and the vote in the Democratic primary, for the nomination of candidates for State offices and for U S Senator, will be taken in a different booth. By virtue of the rules laid down by the authorities of the Democratic party, those who wish to vote in the primary are required to first vote for Congressman, though they will not be required to state, at the primary booth, how they voted in the Congressional race. The Democratic congressional campaign committee suggests that this be kept in mind to avoid confusion.

Important Notice.

Each member of the Congressional Democratic Campaign Committee, for Garrard county, is urgently requested to act as a member of the steering committee, during the election next Tuesday, and to notify the voters, at their respective precincts, that there are two voting places, and that those who desire to vote in the State Primary are expected to vote, first in the Congressional race, and then go to the Primary booth. It is also suggested that the committee remind the voters of the fact that a vote, in the circle under the rooster, is a vote for Hon. Harvey Helm, which means a vote for Equal Rights to all, and a vote against Centralization of Power, High Protective Tariff, Trusts, the unlawful aggregation of wealth, and all those pernicious doctrines which are against the general welfare.

Election next Tuesday.

Thursday, the 29th has been designated for Thanksgiving.

Remember the bond question when you go into the booth next Tuesday.

First vote for Congressman, then go to the other booth and vote in the State Primary.

There being no opposition to Hon R H Tomlinson, his is the only name on the town ballot for Mayor.

Eld F M Tindler will return in time to fill his pulpit at the Christian church Sunday at the usual hours.

Rev G W Young, the temperance evangelist, did not fill his appointment here Sunday, other engagement preventing.

The residence of W B Mason caught fire Saturday afternoon, and the kitchen was badly damaged before the flames were extinguished.

As Rev Mr Brown is engaged in a protracted meeting at Mt Carmel there will be no preaching at the Presbyterian church Sunday.

The Richmond Business College wants fifty bright young men and women to prepare for good positions. Has just placed a number of graduates with calls for more.

Every young man and woman should enter the Richmond Business College at once and prepare for good positions. Prof Lippold has call for more graduates than he can supply. Superior advantages. Positions guaranteed.

Raw newspaper has advanced nearly fifteen cents on the hundred pounds within the past month. Everything used in a printing office is higher than ever known, and no drop in prices seems in sight.

A few are kicking on the bond issue to repair the Court House, but they should turn from the error of their way and help secure a suitable place in which to hold court and store the records of the county.

Again The Record warns parties to stay off the hose wagon when it is being hauled to a fire. It is not only dangerous but makes the load too heavy to get the wagon along at a rapid pace. Keep off!

Will Preach Sunday.

Bro. Tindler writes that he will fill his pulpit Sunday, at usual time, or will have Rev Willis to do so for him. Bro. Tindler is holding a very successful meeting at Clintonville, Bourbon county.

A special train was run by the L and N from Richmond to Stanford Tuesday to accommodate those wanting to hear Senator McCreary's speech, and the coaches were crowded. A brass band made music and the crowd was a happy one, indeed.

Cooking Class at Work.

The cooking class, taught by Mrs Nannie Johnston, meets in the county court room, and is progressing nicely. Mrs Johnston is an expert instructor, and those composing the class are highly delighted with their progress.

Cheap Trip to California.

This office has a round trip ticket to California, either San Francisco or Los Angeles, which we will dispose of at a very low figure. Ticket good returning until Jan 1st, first class passage. Will sell cheap if sold at once. Address J. M. H. care Central Record.

We trust our readers will pardon the use of so much political matter in this and recent editions of The Record. All of it is paid for at advertising rates. It costs money, and lots of it, to have type set and buy paper, and we must charge for printing communications.

Election Returns.

Election returns will be received at the circuit court room next Tuesday night. The room will be comfortably heated and good order preserved. Admission only 25c. Returns from all over the state, by both telegraph and telephone.

Posting Up.

Mr J W Elmore, who is to be cashier of the new Garrard Bank and Trust Co., has been in Paint Lick this week receiving instructions in some of the latest and most up to date methods of banking used by Mr W G Kemper, who is one of the best cashiers in the state. Mr Elmore is a very popular man, and will make many friends for the new institution.

Erroneous Report.

Mr W H Traylor, of Gilberts Creek asks The Record to correct the report that he has stopped selling liquor at his distillery. You will be waited on any day in the week but positively not on Sunday. Mr Traylor, who has just returned from a trip North, is greatly improved in health, much to the gratification of his many friends, and they hope his relief is permanent.

The handsome new hotel and several business houses at Somerset were destroyed by fire Monday morning.

County Judge Ford has had a row of fine trees placed around the court house. "Cousin Charley" Grimes, the veteran tree man, did the work.

Judge L W Bethurum, republican candidate for congress, spoke at the court house, Monday afternoon. His speech was highly complimented by those who heard it.

The Ladies Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church will hold a Bazaar on Saturday, December, 8th. Eatables, home made candy- useful and fancy articles for sale.

Lancaster friends extend deep sympathy to Mr and Mrs A J Rice on the death of their 15 month old daughter, who died at their home in Hedgeville, Sunday. The remains were buried at Stanford Monday.

Stage Line Sold.

J D Gulley has sold the Buckeye stage line to J Bert Soper, who will take charge of same Monday. Mr Gulley has decided to move to Lexington and will have sale of household goods Saturday at two o'clock.

On next Tuesday, those who desire to vote in the State Primary will be expected to first go to the regular voting place and vote for Hon. Harvey Helm, the Democratic nominee for Congress, by putting the stencil in the circle under the rooster.

A Worthy Case.

The Record is requested to call attention of our people to the destitute condition of a widow lady, Mrs Mike Gallagher, who lives near the Henry Patterson place on Buckeye pike. She has four children, is sick and in need of food and clothing. Any donations left at The Record office will be sent to her.

Prisoners Removed.

The Garrard county jail being unsafe since Ball saved the bars of one of the cells, Judge Ford deemed it best to send East to Danville and Simpson to the Stanford jail. Lancaster officers delivered them to the jailors of these towns Monday night. The Danville News is off it's trolley when it says, they were removed by reason of threatened mob violence.

Saw Jail Bars.

Ollie Ball, charged with horse stealing, sawed out of the Lancaster jail and made his escape Saturday morning. The saws were made of case knives. Ball was recently captured by Deputy Sheriff, "Dick" Moore, and was sent to the asylum, but made his escape and was again captured by Mr. Moore. It's a safe bet that "Dick" will soon have Ball behind the bars again.

Help to Housekeepers.

Zimmer's Restaurant has arranged to have soups of different kinds each day, and will supply families in any quantities, from five cents' worth up, fresh and hot. These soups are made of the very best materials, fresh and hot. Will have beef, vegetable and mock turtle soup ready for you on shortest notice. This will be a great help to housekeepers, and they will appreciate the enterprise. Send up your bucket and try it.

Only One Candidate.

The name of Hon R H Tomlinson, for mayor, is the only one on the town ballot to be voted for next Tuesday. There is a difference of opinion as to this being the proper time to elect a mayor, some claiming the appointment of Mr John M Duacan to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Ed Bishop holds until next year. Mr Tomlinson's friends are positive that the election next Tuesday will be legal. As there is only one name on the ticket, the ballot is very small, being about the size of a slice of boarding-house pie.

The Cooking School.

A large number of Lancaster ladies are taking advantage of the opportunity to become experts in the culinary art by attending the cooking school being taught by Mrs Nannie Johnston, in the county court room. The vexing servant problem alone is enough to warrant rather force the good women to be coming experts in this line, while the opportunity of learning to prepare the many dainty dishes is seldom to be had in a country town. Mrs Johnston is conceded to be the best instructor in the state, and members of her class are more than delighted with their progress. The price is only fifty cents a lesson, and pupils can enter at any time. The class will continue for two weeks longer. The following menu will be prepared on the dates given:
Thursday, Nov 1st.
Potato Rolls, Tomato Puree, Chicken and Nut Timbals, Plum Pudding, Foamy Sauce.
Friday, Nov 2nd.
Baked Fish with Parisienne Potatoes, Eggs a la Reine, Brains in border of Rice, Orange Pudding.
Saturday, Nov 3rd.

Enjoyable and Profitable Meeting.
The Eighth Congressional District Teachers Association met in this city, at the Baptist church, Friday and Saturday. A great many teachers were here from adjoining counties, while nearly every one in Garrard was present. Prof Mannix, president, presided, and the program, as published in The Record, was carried out to the satisfaction and enjoyment of all present. The principal addresses were delivered by Hon J A Sullivan, of Richmond, Prof H K Traylor, of Winchester, and Prof J C Lewis, of London. These addresses were greatly enjoyed not only by the teachers but by a great many of our citizens who attended the sessions. The next meeting will be held in Burgin. The following officers were elected President, Prof Clarence Adams, of Burgin; vice president, Prof O O Peratt, of Junction City; secretary, Miss Bettie M Robinson, of Lancaster. The next meeting will not be held until October, 1907.

Obituary.

Willie Smith, son of Jas Smith, died Thursday morning, Oct the 25th after an illness of four weeks of typhoid fever. He was born 28th of January 1890. He was nearing his 17th birthday. It seems a pity for one so young to be taken away from the arena of life, but the Book of Books says somewhere the good are taken from the evil to come. And it intimates also that the worldly minded never see it that way. Buy the testimony of the neighbors and especially those he worked for, Willie Smith was a good, faithful boy. One business man in the town for whom he labored said to the writer some days before died, "Willie Smith was the best boy I ever saw." Miss Sallie Tarlton (the nurse), who was him ten nights and days before he died said "I've seen many die but I never saw one so calm, peaceful and triumphant as he." He was a wonder to Miss Sallie, why? He knew God. He knew Him in the forgiveness of sins and in keeping power. When I said to him ten days before he died, "How is it with your soul?" He turned his large dark eyes upon me answering "Brother Williams, his presence is with me all the time and his will is mine." He came to the clear knowledge of the fact some days before he died that the and was near and these are the words of his prayer: "Lord Jesus you know how I am suffering here, take me to your self, put me in my mother's arms and let rest forever." He joined the Methodist Church in his seventh year, lived a Christian life tho a boy and died a Christian, not resigned but triumphant. Thanks unto God for victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. J H Williams, Pastor Methodist church, Lancaster, Ky.

IN MEMORIAM.

Henry Clay Jennings was born at the family homestead in Garrard county eighty two years ago, and passed to his reward at his residence in Lancaster, on the 25th of October, 1906. He was educated at the best schools of his day, and devoted the greater part of his life to agricultural pursuits. He was married to Miss Mary Smith, who died, leaving a son, Leslie, who did not long survive her, and an infant daughter, who grew to womanhood and is now living. In 1864, Mr Jennings was united in marriage with Miss Mary D Lusk, daughter of the late Judge Samuel Lusk, one of Garrard's wealthiest and most prominent citizens. Of this union there were three children:—Mrs Lida Orand, deceased, Mr J Bradford Jennings, and Mrs Margaret Williams, who with their mother, survive. Also Mrs Mary Anderson, of the first marriage. Funeral services were conducted at his late residence, on Richmond street, Friday afternoon, Eld. F M Tindler assisted by Rev CS Ellis, officiating, after which the remains were interred in the Lancaster Cemetery.

Henry Clay Jennings' ancestors were old Virginians of the high, self-respecting type of citizenship that prclaims Anglo Saxon blood. Of upright walk, honorable principle, and correct living. He was a worthy descendant of such a race. He was a man of fine presence and pleasing address; interesting in conversation and genial in companionship. He was strong in his affections and warm in his friendships. His happiness was in his home, and the keynote to his social life was the hospitality whose latching string is always found on the outside. He was a close reader of standard literature, and was conversant with the vital questions of his generation. He discussed fluently the current topics of the day, as well as the traditions of his fathers, and the historic facts of the ages. In his convictions he was distinctly partisan, and once assured that he was right he yielded no compromise. He was a consistent and prominent member of the Christian church, having been an elder for many years. In his religious observances, he was actuated not only by the desire to do right, but he appreciated also in an intellectual way the forceful teachings of pulpits eloquence. To hear mark, and inwardly digest, "was the rule of his life.

He passed away full of years, surrounded by his beloved wife, his children and grandchildren, the youngest of whom only a few weeks old, received the name of the dying grandfather. Longing for his release, he peacefully yielded up his spirit to his Maker. Thou art gone to the grave but we will not deplore thee, Thou art not dead, but thou art passing the tomb; Thy Savior hath passed through its portal before thee, And the lamp of his love is thy light through the gloom.

You Should Vote for the Bond Issue

NOVEMBER 6th, 1906.

The Court House of Garrard County was built 1869, 37 years ago. There has been but little repairing done to this building all these intervening years. This being the fact, it is only necessary to suggest, that the building is in a dilapidated condition and needs overhauling. In order that the proper County Authorities may order the work done to put it in proper condition, and appropriate the funds to pay for the work and material, the law requires that the question be first submitted to a vote of the people, and in conforming with the requirements of the law the question is submitted for approval or rejection at the regular November election, 1906. There is no politics in this matter, but is addressed to the consideration of all citizens alike, because:

1st. The cupola on the Court House is liable to fall off at any time and thus endangers the lives of many people.

2nd. The two vaults in the Court House contain the public records of the county. It is the opinion of competent architects that neither of these vaults are fire proof. In the event the Court House should burn all the public records would be destroyed, causing almost endless litigation and vexation to the people, not to consider the great expense to replace the records, where same could be done.

3rd. On account of the dilapidated condition of the building, the window lights in the Circuit Court room are constantly blowing out, and the rain falling on the Circuit Court Room Floor, causes the plastering to fall from the ceiling of the lower offices, making them unsafe for occupancy.

4th. The present state of the Circuit Court Room, it is most impossible to keep it comfortable for the holding of Court at the March and November terms, of Circuit Court.

5th. There are no suitable rooms for the petit jury in the Court House.

6th. The Grand Juries of the two terms of Court last passed have threatened to indict the County for not providing a more suitable, comfortable and sanitary place for the holding of Circuit Court.

7th. The Grand Juries at the two terms of Court last passed have by their written reports, after examining the condition of the Court House, recommended the repairing and overhauling the Court House.

8th. The rate of taxation would not be raised and the people would pay no more taxes than they pay at the present time.

9th. The repairing of the Court House was recommended by the Grand Jury of the two last terms of the Circuit Court, the Circuit Judge, Fiscal Court, County Judge, County Attorney, County Officers, Members of the Bar, and many of the prominent Business men of the County, and by the Chairmen of the Democratic and Republican parties of Garrard County.

10th. The Building is needing the repairing, and the work done now may save the expenditure of many thousand dollars a few years hence.

11th. The Financial condition of the County justifies the expenditure of sufficient money to secure comfortable, neat, and Sanitary building for the people and for the holding of Court.

12th. The voting of the bonds for this purpose will be for the benefit of every citizen of Garrard county; and remember your taxes will not be increased one cent. The only object of the vote is to authorize the bond issue.

Mr and Mrs Will Watking are rejoicing over the arrival of a son.

Rev Williams, of Lancaster, will preach at Pleasant Hill school house Sunday Nov 4th at 3 P M.

Mr McWilliams was called to the bedside of his son at Mt Hebron, Sunday, who is reported in a very critical condition.

CONSUMPTION'S WARNING

The aid of scientific inventions is not needed to determine whether your lungs are affected. The first symptoms can be readily noted by anyone of average intelligence.

There is no disease known that gives so many plain warnings of its approach as consumption, and no serious disease that can be so quickly reached and checked, if the medicine used is Dr. Boesche's German Syrup, which is made to cure consumption.

It is in the early stages that German Syrup should be taken, when warnings are given in the cough that won't quit, the congestion of the bronchial tubes and the gradual weakening of the lungs, accompanied by frequent expectation.

But no matter how deep-seated your cough, even if dread consumption has already attacked your lungs, German Syrup will surely effect a cure—as it has done before in thousands of apparently hopeless cases of lung trouble.

Quite a number from here attended the horse sales at Wilmore, Monday.

Misses Mattie Borer and Clara Bennett visited friends in Jessamine last week.

Miss Margaret Tomlinson was the guest of Miss Mayne Ballard. last week.

Mr Jerry Combs and wife, of Jessamine, visited Mr and Mrs W L Glass, last week.

Miss Mattie Adams, who has been quite sick for some time, is very much improved.

Mr Ebb Dickerson and family, of Lancaster, spent Sunday with Mr W A Dickerson and wife.

Miss Camilla Stevens, of Valdosta, Ga., arrived Monday, for a short visit to Miss Mayne Lee Ballard.

BEUNA VISTA.

Miss Alice Scott and Annie Sechaest are on the sick list.

H A Spoonamore, who has been quite ill, is slowly recovering.

The meeting at Mt Olivet increases in interest. Come and hear Bro Browley.

Miss Modelle King, of Campbell Hagerman has been at home for a few days.

Mr Oscar Lane and children, of Danville spent Sunday with the family of J F Ruble.

Miss Bella Arnold and Mr Miles, of Lancaster were guests of Miss Virginia King Sunday.

MARKSBURY.

John Simpson sold a lot of corn to Dr W M Elliot at $2.00 delivered.

N P Cobb sold about 100 barrels of corn to Jeff Dunn, of Brantsville, at $2.00 per barrel.

Mrs T I Herring and Misses Sallie and Lee Herring were in Danville, Monday, shopping.

Mr Jim Collins and sister, Miss Mary of Madison county, were visitors of Mr N P Cobb and wife the latter part of last week.

Miss Kate Ely, our mantua maker tells us she gets more sewing than she can do. Miss Kate is the only one who ever had an up-to-date establishment in our town and deserves the patronage of the people. She has a new accordion player, and is prepared to do all kinds of nice work.

Mrs Elizabeth Shumate died at her home here, of consumption, aged 52 years. She was a member of the Presbyterian Church and a good Christian woman, who numbered her friends by legions. She will be greatly missed here, where she had made her home for twenty six years. Her sisters, Mrs Robert L Slater and Miss Eliza Yeaky, of West Port, Ind. were at her bedside and have our deepest sympathy in their sorrow. She was conscious to the last, and expressed her willingness to go and almost her last words were, "I am happy." The burial occurred in the Lancaster Cemetery, Saturday morning at eleven o'clock in the presence of a large concourse of friends.

A Card of Thanks. We wish to thank the people of Paint Lick and vicinity for their kindness and never tiring efforts to our sister during her illness, and especially do we wish to thank Dr Carmon. Their kindness will ever be remembered by us.

A GARDEN TRANSPLANTER.

By its Use the Plant and Earth Can Be Removed Without Disturbing Roots.

Some years ago I wished to extend our strawberry bed with the newly-formed plants, and as the conditions for transplanting in midsummer are not often favorable in central Kansas, where we then lived, I had to evolve a plan to move the soil with the plants, says a writer in the Rural New Yorker.

I had heavy tin cut in pieces 4 1/2 by 11 inches. I wanted a strong wire turned in along one side, but the tin was without the necessary machine and the best he could do was to turn the edges over twice, thus considerably strengthening the top of the tool.

With a block of wood 3 1/2 inches square for a form the two ends of the tins were bent at right angles to the central part, thus forming three sides of a hollow cube. Armed with three dozen of these, garden trowel and a wheelbarrow, I proceeded to the patch.

A tin with a good plant in the center was forced into the ground with the foot, the trowel inserted along the open side of the square formed by the top of the tin and the tin containing the soil and plant was lifted and placed in the barrow. Proceeding until a full cargo was obtained the barrow was wheeled to the plot previously prepared and the tins with the plants all set in their proper places.

Then spreading the wings slightly the tins readily slipped out, leaving the plants set with roots in the least exposed or disturbed. The work was rapidly done and with perfect success even in sunny weather. The tins lasted several years and I used them for other small plants, as cabbage and tomato. If the soil is loose and not well held by the tin bend the wings nearer together, making the open side narrower.

A GOOD BRUSH HOOK.

Tool Easily Made Which Will Be Useful in Cutting Heavy Briers, Etc.

A hook for cutting bushes, heavy briers and such plants, which is simple and easily made by a blacksmith is shown in the cut, says the Farm and Home. Take a piece of cast steel one-quarter inch square and ten inches long. Use one-half for the blade and the other half for the shank. Draw the end for the blade (a) down nearly to a point, then bend pretty well, as it will straighten in drawing to an edge. Have the level all on one side. Draw down true and thin. Then draw the shank down, tapering to the end and bend about one inch of the end down to go into the snath. An old scythe snath is just the thing. Fasten it to the snath with an old heel ring driven on the same as to fasten a scythe. Such a bush hook is light to handle. You can cut off a bush an inch or more in diameter with ease. The blade needs about the same temper that you would give a knife. This is much harder than the ordinary bush hook. The blade is not so long, cumbersome nor heavy, and the ease of management will appeal to every farmer who handles it.

Danger from the Plague.

There's grave danger from the plague of Coughs and Colds that are so prevalent, unless you take Dr King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. Mrs Gee Walls, of Forest City, Me, writes: "It's a Godsend to people living in climates where coughs and colds prevail. I find it quickly ends it. It prevents Pneumonia, cures LaGrippe, gives wonderful relief in Asthma and Hay Fever, and makes weak lungs strong enough to ward off Consumption, Coughs and Colds 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed by R E McRoberts drug store. Trial bottle free.

Farm For Sale.

264 ACRES OF LAND.

Will sell privately 264 acres of fine farming land situated 1 mile from Lancaster on the Lexington pike, about 10 acres in town limits. About 135 acres in cultivation, rest in grass. All under good fence, and has plenty of never-failing water. Dwelling house is good and has all necessary outbuildings. Possession for seeding purposes given this Fall and of dwelling first of year. Successor of the farm should be given to be appreciated. Since the City Council is enforcing the laws, land in the vicinity of Lancaster has advanced in price greatly and is in great demand.

HUGHES & SWINEBROAD

LANCASTER, KENTUCKY.

Farms and City Property for Sale and Exchange.

Activity in Real Estate indicates the fact that it is the safest and best investment, since money yields a low rate of interest.

You can buy from us as low as the owner, as he pays us our commission, based on the "bottom dollar" which will buy the property, and the purchaser pays no commission, the owners price being our price.

To prospective purchasers: Something in reference to Lancaster and Garrard County. No more fertile soil nor better people are found than in Garrard County. Garrard County stands right up in the front rank as to the production of hemp and tobacco. The only successful machine for hemp breaking was brought direct to Garrard for work. Our hemp and tobacco buyers always take the lead in paying the highest market price, as also for all other farm products. A new bank with a capital stock of $50,000.00 is being built. We have one of the best graded schools in Kentucky; the best system of water works in the State and the best system of electric lights. Also headquarters for the Bastin Telephone Co., whose lines reach all points. The Belle Telephone also has a line here. There is rural free delivery of mail along all the pikes in the County.

The following will be shown by us at low prices.
